

EDITOR ADDICTED TO USED LICORISH!

Editor chewing Licorish

T.P.H.S., Thursday. Notorious editor of THE 3A ADVERTISER, Karlos Chilblaine, has recently turned into a vagrant, licorish chewing addict.

He has become addicted to a special variety of half-chewed licorish, obtainable only from under desks in Room 30.

Psychiatrists say that the chewing of used licorish is indicative of a phenezoal inferiority complex, and ingrown toenails.
