EGGINS TURNS WASTY

(4c)

OVAL, Thursday, (CPC) NEWS. Poor old Allanius Egginsious became mentally disorganised for a few minutes today. He was with several other 3A hoods (the usual gang!) playing a game of soccer. Our editor, Karlos Chiblain, was broadcasting a commentary of the game for radio station 2CPC when up ran the said Egginsious and punched Karlos viciously. Karlos was heard to comment "Hey, what's the big idea?" However Karlos later realised that Egginsious is incapable of big ideas, and so he changed his question. Karlos eventually got revenge when he crept up behind Egginsious and bopped him one.

On Friday, the performance was repeated, but this time another dangerous citizen, Bobo the Slobo, joined in. Karlos was quite surprised when he realised he was still alive after the incident.

FOOTNOTE

Much loved? public figure, Jonanthious Priority, was also broadcasting for a radio station at the time, but he was not disturbed ~~XXXX~~ once!

We do not mind you reading competitive papers, infact we encourage it! That's how you realise how good this one is!
