

Letters To The Editor

Sir,

I would like to complain about some of the subjects you have been using for articles in previous papers.

If you wish to improve your paper, I suggest you eliminate articles concerning the following:

Greg Flowers

He has had many rubbish-type articles written about him. This slob-type, ridiculous, irritating, disgusting mutt has been monopolising your paper for far too long - cut out anything concerning him and you'll be doing a good turn for society.

Phony Stewart

He has also had useless-type articles written about him. This toad-type, crummy, stupid, idiot-type child is nothing but a waste of time and paper. I'm sure there are very few of your readers interested in such tripe!!!! (apart from Phony himself.)

Alfie

This drongo is another example of the low standard subject on which you publish articles. This rodent-type, creepy, crawly, pesky, nuisance-type nut is a boring topic under any circumstances.

● By ~~eliminating~~ omitting these drips you would improve the standard of your paper immensely.

Yours Sincerely etc
slobby-type Wil

Why do you call your paper an "advertiser" when it only sometimes contains very scarce undetectable ads. I have to collect them and print "read A A A" in the big empty spaces.

Keep reading THE 3A ADVERTISER, 3A's S A N E newspaper, and remember (CPC)'s famous motto-Don't count your pages before you read!

Now turn to the back page for all the ads you could want
