

FIFTH FORM BOYS TOLD OFF

"SELFISH, SELF-OPINIONATED,
INSOLENT, ARROGANT, LITTLE BOYS"

Quadrangle, Friday, (CPC) NEWS. The entire T.P.H.S. fifth form, was publicly ridiculed here today, before an audience of fascinated first-years.

At the conclusion of a general assembly, the boss called a meeting, and invited all of fifth form to attend.

Although the girls were included in this merry gathering, the boys undoubtedly got the worst of it. Many of them were even seperated for further indoctrination.

The twenty-five minute speech which followed was a masterpiece! LBJ could not have done better. It left no room for criticism or complaint, although John Bates did try to squeeze in a little of each. During the speech, many words of abuse were carelessly hurled at the audience—see our heading-words one would hardly expect to find in the boss's vocabulary.

The first-years in Room 46, who witnessed the incident, must surely have decided on the spot to leave school at the end of fourth year, to avoid the boss's annual anti-fifth form campaign.

FOOTNOTE Pryor, arriving late on the scene, found his comrades standing spellbound and enchanted, as the boss read to them. Silly Pryor, nut that he is, went and joined the line-up of serious offenders—Harris and Co—and must surely have attracted the boss's attention when he quickly excused himself from that line at the termination of the gathering.

WANTED

One black pen. Will pay up to 10c for one in good condition. Apply—Karlos Chilblaine.

As nobody gave me any classified ads, I have to fill this classified-ad column up with a classified ad asking for classified ads! Please get yours in NOE! Don't forget, if you want something you don't have, or have something you don't want, advertise in the 5E2 PAR SROWND this is the international sign ✱ of dirty old wool!